Sir,

I have the honour to state that C Ahamed Hussain one of the Vaccinators of this Municipality applied for a fortnights leave from 13-7-1943 and the same was granted Instead of returning to duty on the expiry of the leave the official sought for further extension of leave by fifteen days from 28-7-1943, and as the Health Officer personally felt that the official was unfit for further work in service he directed the vaccinator to appear before the District Medical Officer and produce the necessary certificate for his further retention in service The District Medical Officer has, after examination certified that the official is completely and permanently incapaciated for further service of any kind in consequence of High blood pressure and Vertigo etc The certificate is enclosed in original
